POLI'S

Charley Chaplin's funniest screen tcream, "The Floorwalker," . will be shown for the last time tonight at Poll's. This first of his $670,000 film productions has brought new comedy honors to Chaplin, and has registered an instant hit. Charley plays the role of a floorwalker and rather turns upside down in what used to be a nice department store. Pretty Edna Pur-viance and other Chaplin co-workers are in the production which is in Berlo's Diving Girls a quartet of beauties, present one of the most intersting aquatic acts ever seen here. There is a screaming comedy climax to the offering, introducing a 65-yearold woman in fancy dives.

Lillian Herlein, always a favorite here, has renewed former successes with her classy song repertoire. Miss Herlein is a most talented songstress and wears some stunning gowns.

Please tell me something about the island of Porto Rico, its area, population, distance from some points in the United States, resources, etc. How long has it belonged to the United States?

Porto Rico became a possession of the United States following the war with Spain Oct. 18, 1898. It contains about 3,600 miles. A census taken in 1900 showed a population of 953,243, of whom 589,428 were white and 363,817 were colored. The population in 1910 is reported as 1,118,012. The island is unusually fertile, and its principal industries are agriculture and lumbering, There are more than 500 varieties of trees found in the forests, and the plains are full of palm, prange and other trees.

The principal crops are sugar, coffee, tobacco and corn, but oranges, bananas, rice, pineapples and many other fruits are important products. The largest export is sugar and the next is tobacco. Other exports in order of amount are coffee, fruits, molasses, cattle, timber and hides. San Juan, the capital of the island, is 1411 miles from New York, 1,200 miles from Charleston, S. C., and 1,050 miles from Key West, Fla.
